

There are several U.S. funding options for purchasing the IntimateRider™.

- Cash or credit card
- Private Insurance
- Public Insurance (i.e. Medicaid, etc.)
- Disability Insurance
- Liability Insurance (i.e. car, home, etc.)
- Possible payment plan through IntimateRider
- Worker's Compensation (you will need assistance from your case manager)
- Purchase through your VA Hospital

At this time, IntimateRider does not have a billing code. It doesn't mean you can not try to have your insurance assist with payment, but it can be a lengthy/challenging process.

Submitting the right documentation from the start can help you in the process.

Step 1 – Talk to your physician and therapist about the IntimateRider to make sure the product will work for you.

Step 2 – Have your therapist write a letter of medical necessity/justification with your physician co-signing the letter. Make sure the letter is clear and concise.

Letter of medical necessity should include but not limited to:

- Patients brief medical history, diagnosis and DOB
- Mobility function: transfers, ADL's, ROM, etc.
- Description of the IntimateRider: Describe the product in detail and why you think this product will enhance functional limitations, independence and well being. Visit our website for product features and capabilities.
- Therapist and doctor signatures

Step 3 – Attach any photos, videos and informational brochures regarding the IntimateRider. (Download from www.intimaterider.com)

Step 4 – Submit the information for prior authorization from your funding source.

Step 5 – If your prior authorization is denied, you have the right to appeal. Review your insurance appeals process. Most will usually have a timeframe to file an appeal.

Step 6 – When your funding is approved, you can place your order by calling 810.277.1841 and provide your funding information to customer service.
